Ferryman, Ferryman have you seen my Mary-Ann?

In my search for her I've been, around the bay and back again

Around the bay and back again

From Espanola to Manitoulin

'Cross the channel I'm bound

I heard a story in Tobermory

That my baby's in Owen Sound

I was close behind her

But couldn't find her

So to Meaford, I'm away

Down to Collingwood, that's where I stood

At the bottom of the Georgian Bay

Ferryman, Ferryman have you seen my Mary-Ann?

In my search for her I've been, around the bay and
back again

Around the bay and back again

From Wasaga to Penatagushine, North to Parry Sound

There's thirty thousands of lakes and islands

And where can she be found

From Britma Bay we never hit French River

In Sudbury they say, she took a ferry to Tobermory

Across the Georgian Bay

Ferryman, Ferryman have you seen my Mary-Ann?

In my search for her I've been, around the bay and
back again

Around the bay and back again

From Espanola to Manitoulin

'Cross the channel I'm bound

Another story in Tobermory

Said to try ol' Hepwoth town

I was close behind her, but couldn't find her

So I guess I'll have to stay

Without my lovely on Lonely Island

In the middle of the Georgian Bay

Ferryman, Ferryman have you seen my Mary-Ann?

In my search for her I've been, around the bay and
back again

Around the bay and back again
