"Handy Man Blues"

I got the "I don't know how to fix the damn thing blues"

I'm a handy man to hav earound when you're drinkin'

I can't mend my broken heart with a hammer, nails or screws

I'm a handy man with the "I don't know how to fix the
damn thing blues"

Your just gonna have to come back to mend my broken heart

Cause every castle that I built was a dream that fell apart

I got the "I don't know how to fix the damn thing blues"

I'm a handy man to make dreams that don't come true

All I have is a broken heart and a tool set I can't choose

Like a handy man with the "I don't know how to fix the
damn thing blues"

I used to be the ambitious kind to keep things in repair

But ever sense you said goodbye I guess I lost my flare

I got the "I don't know how to fix the damn thing blues"

I'm a handy man to make dreams that don't come true

All I have is a broken heart and a tool set I can't choose

I'm a handy man with "I don't know how to fix the damn thing blues"

I got the "I don't know how to fix the damn thing blues"

I'm a handy man to have around when you're drinkin'

I can't mend my broken heart with a hammer, nails and screws

I'm a handy man with the "I don't know how to fix the
damn thing blues"

I'm a handy man with the "I don't know how to fix the
damn thing blues"
