Sunshine dries up the sidewalks and wipes all my teardrops away

I wheel my wheelchair to the window

And stare at the rain as it falls on the street

I wish in the gloom of my dark little room

That a ray from the sunshine would peep

Because rain drops just like my tears

Won't let me watch the kids play

But sunshine dries up the sidewalks

And wipes all my teardrops away

It's so good to see children like me

Playing games on the street when it's dried

They laugh and have fun

They skip and they run

And they make me feel happy inside

While rain drops just like my tears

Won't let me watch the kids play

But sunshine dries up the sidewalks

And wipes all my teardrops away

Sometimes when I smile at the kids for awhile

They come up to my window to see

My funny wheelchair, and my legs that aren't there
And they often pick flowers for me
Until rain drops just like my tears
Won't let me watch the kids play
But sunshine dries up the sidewalks
And wipes all my teardrops away
Tomorrow I know, I don't want to go
With that lady who comes in the van
She'll take me away, where children won't play
Near my sunshiny window again
And rain drops just like my tears
Won't let me watch the kids play
But sunshine dries up the sidewalks
And wipes all my teardrops away
Sunshine dries up the sidewalks and wipes all my
teardrops away.
