Rin- I saw a butterfly, sitting on your right shoulder,
As I kissed you in, the very corner of the room,
I learned how it feels, to experience true pain,
The piano sounds rebound,
(Len joins in) In my head they spin 'round!

Len- Saw a butterfly, sitting on your right shoulder,
As I kissed you in, the very corner of the room,
I learned how it feels, to experience true pain,
The piano sounds rebound,
In my head they spin round!

Len- I am having the worst nightmare, and I desperately need someone here to wake me up,
What happens early on at the start, of the story's not worthy of importance,
Please don't ask me where I want to go, because I won't be able to answer you, you know,
The night was too impressive for me, so it dazzled me and now I've lost my way.

Making my lashes longer, and shaping them carefully,
Wearing eyeliner and a hint of lipstick too.

Saw a butterfly, sitting on your right shoulder,
As I kissed you in, the very corner of the room,
I learned how it feels, to experience true pain,
The piano sounds rebound,
In my head they spin round!

In my head they spin round, r-r-r-round!
In the corner of- In the corner of- In the very corner of the room-!
M-m-my head, m-m-my head they spin round!

While I was standing out in the rain, my hair got all wet, and looked frozen and strange,
All my loneliness went down the drain, while I waited outside for you, cold and afraid...
When I follow you, then run away,
It means that I want you to follow me as well,
If you think that it's all just a joke, you will surely get hurt- I hope you understand.

Painted my nails in red, put a cheap ring on my finger,
If I get hurt again, I'll buy some new earrings,

Hold onto me tight, cause I have this void inside,
You're the only one, who can make my heart feel alright,
So aren't you the one? The only one I need,
I know that you are, I can't control my needs!

Feelings of regret, make me feel like giving up,
My self-pity, or my pleasure, which one will come out on top?
I need this to stop, or I'll end up going mad,
Give me one moment, of feeling I'm at ease.

What's leaking out of my wounds?
Is it blood or is it love?
I feel it dripping out, ahhh-ahhh!

Feelings of regret, make me feel like giving up,
My self-pity, or my pleasure, which one will come out on top?
I need this to stop, or I'll end up going mad,
Give me one moment, of feeling I'm at ease.

Hold onto me tight, cause I have this void inside,
You're the only one, who can make my heart feel alright?
So aren't you the one? The only one I need,
I know that you are, I can't control my needs!

Saw a butterfly, sitting on your right shoulder,
As I kissed you in, the very corner of the room,
I learned how it feels, to experience true pain,
The piano sounds rebound,
In my head they spin round! (Repeat with Rin)
