"Halcyon Days Discharge"

Hazy Lincoln leaped, from the central bridge
He said son, son, son, you've gotta pitch

All kinds full glasses, I've got water at home
All kinds full glasses, I've never let it go.

Distorted drink and dial, on an empty dome
Halcyon days discharge, desolation roam

All kinds full glasses, I've got water at home
All kinds full glasses, I've never let it go.

If you spare me the ice, I'll never lose
If you spare me the ice, lord I'll never be the deuce

All kinds full glasses, I've got water at home
All kinds full glasses, I've never let it go.
