I sat there with my teardrops showing just the way I felt Looking at the emptiness the one I love had left My little boy said daddy mama's left us all alone
I'll go get the tool box and you can fix our broken home

You can fix our broken home daddy, I just know you can
I watched you fix my wagon and now the wheels are tight again
Things will turn out alright daddy don't you cry cause
mama's gone
I'll go get the tool box and you can fix our broken home

You should have heard my tiny boy for courage in this man
The courage to repair our shattered world now right again
Thanks to him I found her his words pushed me along
I'll go get the tool box and you can fix our broken home

You can fix our broken home daddy, I just know you
tight again
Things will turn out alright daddy don't you cry cause
mama's gone
I'll go get the tool box and you can fix our broken home
