I'm coming, yes I'm coming home
You know that I'll be there
I'm coming now, don't you try to phone
Or turn the music down low
I'm coming, yes I'm coming
You know that I'll be running
I'm coming darling, I'll be there

Darling, you once said we could make Everything work that we had
I didn't think that you would lie
Or try to hide it inside
I'm coming, yes I'm coming
You know that I'll be running
I'm coming, yes, you know that...

I said many times before
You would never close your door
I... come on
I said many times before
You would never close your door
I...

I'm coming, yes now I'm coming home
You know that I'll be there
I'm coming, don't you try to phone
Or turn the music down low
I'm coming, yes I'm coming
You know that I'll be running
I'm coming, yes you know that
I...

Oooh I'm coming home, yeah, come on
Oh, I'm coming home, yeah
Don't, don't try to phone, no no no oh oh now
Now I'm coming home, ooooohh
