Title : Hyacinth House

Work in progress, take one.

What are they doing in the Hyacinth House?

What are they doing in the Hyacinth House

To please the lions, this day?

I need a brand new friend who doesn't bother me

I need a brand new friend who doesn't trouble me

I need somebody and who doesn't need me

I feel the bathroom is clear

I know that someone's near

I feel that somebody's following me, oh yeah

Why did you throw that Jack of Hearts away?

Why did you throw that Jack of Hearts away?

Why did you throw that Jack of Hearts away?

It was the only card in the deck that I had left to play

What are they doing in the Hyacinth House

to please the lions this day?

But I'll say it again. I need a brand new friend, yeah.

One more.

But I'll say it again. I need a brand new friend.

The end.
