

Delicate, The "Mastermind"

Visit "Mastermind" on MotoLyrics.com

Two hearts will finally unite
Feeling alive
Murdering innocence
Losing the willingness to fight
They need some room
This is difficult

God I know your different intentions cry everytime
Behind this curtain you are the mastermind of curious eyes

Beautiful lightning can weigh you down
Like breathtaking sunsets when out of town

Leading their conscience to betray
What they feel inside
What fragments still remain
But life circles
And Ill events revolve
Leaving a lonely soul that lost it all
