Somewhere in the city
There's an angel crying
And someone in the room over there
Is talking about him

And he runs
From a purple look
And he runs
To a place you hide
Into a place you hide

Somewhere in the city
There's an angel crying
And someone in the room over there
Is talking about him

And he runs
From a purple look
And he runs
To a place you hide
Into a place you hide
To hide
To hide
Into a place you hide
To hide
