[The kingdom of Kali. A kingdom which lived in peace. Never would they've thought that evil would come to haunt them one day. But in search for The Book of Mystery evil is now standing at the gates of Kali. Who can save The Kingdom of Kali? Is it destined to fall by the hands of the evil one? Only time can tell.]

There is a land so far away from us, a land of magic and mystery
There is a place, so different from everywhere, no peace of understanding

And I, I have fallen to the ground, from the sky above.
And I, I have been chosen to fight the evil one.

Searching for glory, and kingdoms of gold
He travels through forests and valleys alone
Sooner or later he will reach his goal
There's still time to stop him, and bury his soul.

Guardians of Kali, have power and wisdom
to fight his mighty force.
Our gods is at our side
Guardians of Kali, they are hungry for battle
and the enemy's blood.
Sunlight is rising, battle is near.

We will fly like dragons in the sky
We're traveling faster than lightning
With wings that shine eternally
We will fly like dragons in the sky
The guardians gave me the power
To fight in the sky... the guardians of Kali.

There was a time so many years ago.
A time of peace and happiness.

When no one believed in the prophecy, living for the day
And now, I have fallen to the ground, from the sky above
And I, I have been chosen to fight the evil one.

Searching for glory, and kingdoms of gold
He travels through forests and valleys alone
Sooner or later he will reach his goal
There's still time to stop him, and bury his soul.

Guardians of Kali, have power and wisdom
to fight his mighty force.
Our gods is at our side
Guardians of Kali, they are hungry for battle
and the enemy's blood.
Sunlight is rising, battle is near.

We will fly like dragons in the sky
We're traveling faster than lightning
With wings that shine eternally
We will fly like dragons in the sky
The guardians gave me the power
To fight in the sky... the guardians of Kali.

We will fly like dragons in the sky
We're traveling faster than lightning
With wings that shine eternally
We will fly like dragons in the sky
The guardians gave me the power
To fight in the sky... the guardians of Kali.
