Unspoken terror, a threat to all man
A demon who lives in the seas
With music he tricks you, with music so sweet
Tunes that will lead you astray
With magic of evil he plays with your mind
He transform to man and beast
He looks so harmless, his eyes are so blue
But oh, he plays you a fool
He sits in the stream and he's playing his tunes
As beautiful as can be
But don't stay and listen
Run as fast as you can
Or forever lost you will be
To the man who lurks in the deep
He is the deceiver
The source of all evil
And he feeds on our souls
So do not get near him or his cold hands will take you
And drag you below
He sits in the stream and he's playing his tunes
As beautiful as can be
But don't stay and listen
Run as fast as you can
Or forever lost you will be
To the man who lurks in the deep
