[Since the beginning of time when giants traveled the earth, and dragons were flying through the eternal sky stories has been created. Storeis about many heroes and sorcerers with great magic, These stories have been passed down from generation to generation for hundreds of years. In our days many people choose not to believe these stories, but those who has pure heart and an open mind shall see what lies beyond our reality and step into the time of the legends. So gather around the fire, closr your eyes, and listen to the Storyteller!]

Since the beginning of time, when giants traveled the earth
And mighty dragons were flying through the eternal sky
Stories has been created, and told by sorcerers and wise men
Just as me...

So if you got some time to spare, come sit by the fire
I'll tell you stories that lie beyond our reality
So close your eyes my friend, and I shall take you there you'll see

Because I can gice you entracy
To a world of magic and mystery
I can give you entracy
To a world of magic and mystery

I've seen som many things, that only few people have seen
I've seen the Holy Grail that gives you life for eternity
And I've seen the magic ring, which saves the world from evil
The ring of light

So if you wonder how I know all this, listen carefully
I am a sorcerer, the magic is in my hands
So if you want to see the time of the legends come with me

Because I can give you entry
To a world of magic and mystery
I can give you entry
To a world of magic and mystery
Into a world of mystery

Walk into the forest where the trolls are living.
Better watch you step or you won't get far
Sail across the lake where the fairies dancing.
Hurry sail away or they'll put you to sleep

Walk into the mountains where the giant's sleeping.
He won't be so nice if you disturb his sleep
So keep away from places where the evil's raling.
Take the other path and only peace you'll see, you'll see.
Follow me to the valley of the unicorn.
The bringer of justice and peace

Where there's no pain or misery

And when the sun goes down and the night is here, and the stars are shining bright
I'll show you the biggest secret of all times

When you look at the stars
When you look at the stars
You can see right to eternity
You can see right to eternity

Open up your eyes and you can see the magic
That surrounds us Take you time to listen to the nature and you'll understand it
Walk into the forest and you'll see all kind off creatures living
There is so much more to see, so if you ready come with me

Because I can give you entry
To a world of magic and mystery
I can give you entry
To a world of magic and mystery
Into a world of mystery
