Out of nowhere, deep in the mist
You can hear someone calling
Soft and gentle, calling you
To follow their voices
Something is there deep in the ground
(And it's begging you to see)
Tries to deceive you and take over your mind
Don't you go down
Stay where you are
Or you'll be lost forevermore
You're lost in the underworld
Never go back
Once you are trapped
Run away don't stay to hear
The voices from the underworld
It's hard to see
What is their purpose
What force is dividing them?
That's leading the men astray
To the kingdom of twilight
Something is there deep in the ground
(And it's begging you to see)
Tries to deceive you and take over your mind
Don't you go down
Stay where you are
Or you'll be lost forevermore
You're lost in the underworld
Never go back
Once you are trapped
Run away don't stay to hear
The voices from the underworld
