[M: Persson, L: Persson]

When the light has sunk into dark
And you feel forsaken by all
When words of lies have covered the truth
Then remember my words to you

When hope of freedom seems so far
And evil seeks wherever you are
When fear torments and gives you no peace
Then remember my words to thee

Show them that your heart's full of joy
They can hurt your body but can't take your soul
When the hour strikes and it's time to go
Then you won't be afraid anymore

[Solo: Fredrik]

Oh, the hours seen so long
And you feel that you just can't take anymore
Just remember that I'm with you my love
And I'll love you forevermore

Show them that your heart's full of joy
They can hurt your body but can't take your soul
When the hour strikes and it's time to go
Then you won't be afraid anymore
