The Lake Isle of Innisfree.

I will arise and go now and go to Innisfree,

A small cabin build there of clay and wattles made.

Nine bean rows will I have there and a hive for the honey bee.

And live alone in the bee loud glade.

And I shall have some peace there for peace comes dropping slow,

Dropping from the veils of the morning to where the cricket sings.

There midnight's all a glimmer and noon's a purple glow

And evening's full of the linnets' wings.

I will arise and go now for always night and day,

I hear lake water lapping with low sounds by the shore.

I hear it on the roadway or on the pavements grey.

I hear it in the deep heart's core.
