suck my dick!

I hate your face and I hate your voice you think that the others are just your toys you will never have a friend you'll stay alone until your mean ends fuck for your life and the things you do no enemy could be as cruel as you I'd like to rip off your eyes just do me a favour: shut up and die!! thorn of truth stuck in the face of mine!

I hate you just till the end of time!

you don't give a fuck 'bout another's life you destroyed mine with your goddam lies my pain seems to be your pride the hate I feel is too strong to hide just suck my dick little stupid guy that's all you can do and you deny the fact that you'll lose the game then you'll know how it is to be insane my only wish is your creeping death I don't allow you one single breath one day you'll be on your knees and from this moment my mind is free
