Im not a superhero,
Ill never fly through your window or crash through walls
cuz you say so.
Im not an evil genius,
I never meant to play mind games or tried to fuck up everything.
Im through with you,
Im through with you.
The bridge has burned,
Another lesson that Ive learned.
I'm moving on,
I'm moving on.
I've realized, should have listened to myself.
I'm not that superficial.
You never wanted to grow up
I never wanted to give in.
You think that your so special,
You might be partly right but you should stop being so damn selfish.
You never wanted to do anything
And you always told me that Im not one to give
And everytime I thought it was my fault it's you.
