Never had this feeling
Never so strong before
It was more than a romance
And nothing but a lie

Robbed of a naive illusion
Faith is slowly fading away
All that remains is confusion
And the desire to forget this pain

Losing courage to hope
Losing courage to enjoy
Losing courage to believe
Losing emotions

Completely filled with despair
We must learn to pretend,
To start a happy new life
Leaving the past far behind

It only takes one single moment
Suddenly memory strikes back
Disappointment will hurt forever
And new life seems faked when I'm

Losing courage to trust
Losing courage to devote
Losing courage to love

I've lost myself
