I've opened all the doors
And I've looked at what's inside
To many choices when will
All these voices die-ie

Whatever brought me here
So tattered and so torn
My life's a rainy day
My hopes all slip away
I need to be reborn

It's way too hard to analyze
What makes me swim against the tide
My past and future both in line
I'm standin' paralyzed

A puppet with no strings
Wantin' to make a move
If I believe it and finally achieve it
What would be left
To prove, to prove? Yeah

It's way too hard to analyze
What makes me swim against the tide
My past and future both in line
I'm standin' paralyzed

I can't walk and I can't crawl
So how much
Further can I fall?
Is this all in my mind?

It's way too hard to analyze
What makes me swim against the tide
My past and future both in line
I'm standin' paralyzed
I'm standin' paralyzed

Ohh, ohh
I'm paralyzed
