Did you hear me when I called?
Down here on this dark road alone
When the moon is bright
But there's no light to light my way

Looking down over the edge again
Well, I can see what I have done
And I'm guilty but I won't be
Because of you, because of you, yeah

When I fall, you catch me
When I'm down, I reach for you
From the ashes, you save me
And I rise

Floating underneath your wings
I can see it all so clearly
But I have nothing
You give everything to me, to me

When I fall, you catch me
When I'm down, I reach for you
From the ashes, you save me
And I rise

Shine your light on me
Come and set me free
Take it all from me
So I can rise, yeah

When I fall, you catch me
And when I'm down, I reach for you
From the ashes, you save me
And I rise
