"FREE LOVE"

Slipshod and bound for the Underground
On a search and find for the one-track mind
We take any chance, we sing and we dance for free
love
Carrying on seems to take so long
And you're losing track, never looking back
Without knowing why, we beg and we cry for free love

I'm a failure, but I'm not blind
I won't make a bet 'cause it's all I can get is Free love

Moving ahead, you're a king instead
Of that losing bore that you've been before You're back in control, the heart and the soul of free
love

Toeing the line and it feels so fine
As you dine and dance in your cheap romance
You won't be the same, what else could you blame but
free love

When it crumbles you start again
It's the reason we're here, so don't dare interfere with
Free love

No one else understands this race you're compelled to run
You're the only one
They could get into your concept, given time...

And when you're broken, it goes to show
That it still doesn't pay 'till you give it away

Give it away, give away your free love...
