By the way, every little thing about her face

Fills him up, the image so pleasing it could never be erased

Here to stay, embedded in his mind, he wishes they could be

together all the time

By the way she says things, the tone, just to hear her voice

He can't explain, the sound so exciting to him a perfect choice

Here to stay, embedded in his mind, he wishes they
could be

Crazy independent spanish speaking arty flirty red wine drinking sexy tomboy

With a natural way of thinking carefree innocent she's slightly sneaky

Confident and proud from another country has her way lives for today by the Way she's far away

By the way, holding her, hugging her can feel so warm

Just think about it, two bodies embracing, creating love in this form

could be together all the time

Crazy independent spanish speaking arty flirty red
wine drinking sexy tomboy

With a natural way of thinking crazy

Then she kissed him and she went away

Far across to San Francisco Bay

You'd think that she would think again

And only want to be with him

Regardless of the things that pull her far away, she's far away...

Crazy independent spanish speaking arty flirty red
wine drinking sexy tomboy

By the way she's far away and by the way she's far away

Crazy independent spanish speaking arty flirty red wine drinking
