And I'm not the judge or the referee

And I can't accept, 'cause I am uptight

And the smoke's clinging to my eyes are burning

My concern is I just might give you a life

And I can't relate to the hypnotist

And I can't get close, 'cause of plastic wrap

And I want to have kids, but their father's up inside the clouds

The distance between us on my mind

Up until now things have been fine, temporarily

You're cute, but the circumstances changed

Your substitution method crutch

Your whole protection from your fame

There's presentation on my ploy

Is to change my cellophane boy

Ahhh, it's not the 70's

Let your future fly with me

Up until now things have been fine, temporarily

You're cute, but the circumstances changed

Your substitution method crutch

Your whole protection from your fame

There's presentation on my ploy

Is to change my cellophane boy

And I want your habit to be me

Your harbor and your refugee
