Peek in, sneak about peek in, sneak about your broken hearted detective hey girl save the liar
can't you see his pants on fire
hey girl, save the liar
can't you see his pants on fire
my back it hurts again it aches like history caught nothing all day long your smiling back at me, but I feel you must have failed me once again you've let me down my confidence below my knees now I need to find you out [Chorus:]
Peek in, sneak about
I'm gonna snoop and call you out
I've caught you, you're hands are red
Now I'm your broken hearted detective Hey, hey hey

Hey lover why you gone?

Hold on I'm almost there

It's too late you've killed the trust

Don't act so unaware

Why are you so destructive?

Do you realize what you've done?

you can't bring it back to life now

What are you running from?

[Chorus]

I don't like the way it feels

I just want you to be real

Hey girl, save the liar

Can't you see his pants on fire?

Hey girl, save the liar

Can't you see his pants on fire?

I'm rummaging through your closet

Imagining all the worst thoughts

[Chorus x2]

Peek in, peek in

Peek in, peek in

Peek in, sneak about

I'm gonna snoop and call you out

I've caught you, you're hands are red

Now I'm you're brokenhearted detective
