Don't let it go away
This feeling has got to stay
Don't let it go away
This feeling has got to stay
And I can't believe I've had this chance now
Don't let it go away
New, you're so new
You, you're new
And I never had this taste in the past
New, you're so new
My normal hesitation is gone
And I really gravitate to your will
Are you here to fetch me out?
'Cause I've never had this taste in my mouth
You're not old
And you're not familiar
Recently discovered and I'm learning about you
New, you're so new
You, you're new
And you're consuming me violently
And your reverence shamelessly tempting me

Who sent this maniac?

'Cause I never had this taste in the past

You're different, you're different from the former

Like a fresh battery I'm energized by you

(chorus)

Why am I so curious?

This territory is dangerous

I'll probably end up at the start

I'll be back in line with my broken heart

New, you're so new

You, you're new

And I never had this taste in the past

(chorus)

And I can't believe it

Can't believe it

Can't believe it

Can't believe it

Don't let it go away, this feeling has got to stay

Don't let it go away
