Time don't change
It's cold and gray
Just like every other day

Graves are set
Stones are cast
Just like every other day

Will it ever change
No

Worn down dust
Becoming rust
Just like every other day

Life is long
But in time it's so short
Just like every other day

Will it ever change
No

Time don't change
It's cold and gray
Just like every other day
Just like every other day
Just like every other day
