Dennis - Today

Today I woke up thinking you were here, didn't I feel you hand, no...
Shit I just now realize how much in love I truly am,
How much in love I am
This time it's so much different 'cause this love can't get me down, no...
And even though I know your love goes out to your ex-girlfriend now,
It won't get me down

Something tells me, we'll be together eventually Today I wanna love you like I love the sun the moon and the stars, yeah
Today I have to tell you that I am in love that you're in my heart, yeah
I'm gonna tell today

It's crazy how you make me happy when we talk over the phone Somehow you give me strength and confidence when you're near so don't go Don't go nowhere
I love your smile, and how you kiss me, and how you do that thing
I love just everything you do to me, all you do to me

Something tells me, you'll come around eventually Today I wanna love you like I love the sun the moon and
the stars, yeah
Today I have to tell you that I am in love that you're in my heart
Oh baby you're in my heart Today I cannot stop thinking of how you touch me, you drive me wild Today I gotta try to come clean 'bout how I truly feel inside Should I tell today..

Baby baby baby, I go crazy if I don't tell you now

That I love you, love you, love you, loved you then and love you now
That I love you now Feels much better, now that the word is out

Today I wanna love you like I love the sun the moon and the stars
Today I gotta to tell you that I am in love that you're in my heart
Tomorrow I might wish that I never said a thing, cause you've closed the door I guess you'll never know, cause we have almost reached the end of this song

I'm gonna tell today...
