I'm yours and you're mine forever babe
Don't you know that I can't let go
We belong together and I won't leave you alone
I'm yours and you're mine always baby
You speak I listen
That's how it's always been
That's how it'll be

You know I tried to make this work out
You know I tried to keep things alive
And you know that from now on we'll be on the same page
And see the same things
Drippin with diamond rings
And keepin paged things
Ooh baby baby I can't wait
To see your face again
The way we breathe together
To hear them sounds again
When we're under the covers
And like I've always said
They'll never be another
Cause you're the one for me baby

I'm yours and you're mine forever babe
Don't you know that I can't let go
We belong together and I won't leave you alone
I'm yours and you're mine always baby
You speak I listen
That's how it's always been
That's how it'll be

Your loving can't be replaced
I'm always gonna miss you
You can't escape from this heart
You can't make me let go
I know it seems like I'm stuck on your soul
But I can't help it baby
I never wanna let go
You're the air that I breathe
The eye that I see with

The one that lifts me up to touch the sky
You're my everything baby baby
I need you in my life
Cause you mean the world to me baby
That's why I have you in my life

I'm yours and you're mine forever babe
Don't you know that I can't let go
We belong together and I won't leave you alone
I'm yours and you're mine always baby
You speak I listen
That's how it's always been
That's how it'll be

I'm yours and you're mine forever babe
Don't you know that I can't let go
We belong together and I won't leave you alone
I'm yours and you're mine always baby
You speak I listen
That's how it's always been
That's how it'll be

No one can say that you don't love me anymore
And no one can say that you don't care for me anymore
And no one can say that we won't always be in love
And no one can take your heart from mine
Because it's gonna be you all of the time

I'm yours and you're mine forever babe
Don't you know that I can't let go
We belong together and I won't leave you alone
I'm yours and you're mine always baby
You speak I listen
That's how it's always been
That's how it'll be
