Another sleepless night
When the moon hits your eyes
Will the sun ever rise?
For me, for you, for us

Hot cop of coffee in darkness
Love in the silence I hear
And how it's slowly starts
For you, for me, for us

Don't worry, my dear
Don't worry, my dear
Don't worry, my dear
It's gonna be alright

They say the ghosts are awake now
Maybe they have some advice
Cause the train soon is leaving
For me, for you, for us

Slowly the night gets tired
Of this silent town
And the sun slowly rise
For you, for me, for us

Don't worry, my dear
Don't worry, my dear
Don't worry, my dear
It's gonna be alright

Don't worry, my dear
Don't worry, my dear
Don't worry, my dear
It's gonna be alright

Don't worry, my dear
Don't worry, my dear
Don't worry, my dear
It's gonna be alright
