You were a pain in the arse, and now I miss you
You were a snake in the grass, but now I miss you
Something 'bout the way you treated me with disdain
Something 'bout the way we fought, it was a total drain

But now I miss you, I miss you all the time

You were a bitch in a skirt, but now I miss you
You liked to see me hurt, but now I miss you

Something 'bout the way we separated, made me cry
Something 'bout our time together, we really didn't say goodbye

But now I miss you, I miss you all the time
And how I miss you, now that you're not mine

Nothing is perfect as you can see
But you have something special I need

You were a pain in the arse, and now I miss you
You were a snake in the grass, but now I miss you

Something 'bout the way you treated me with disdain
Something 'bout the way we fought, it was a total drain

But now I miss you, I miss you all the time
And how I miss you, now that you're not mine

Nothing is perfect as you can see
But you have something special I need
