Verse 1:

Clock strikes 10 and I'm at it again
Where do I begin? when my gut tells me no one's listenin
Where ever I stand, where ever I sit, where ever Im headin, Know that this is where my beginning is my soul said it Common facts, Im known as Dennis, 20 something years,
Founded by Peace, my soul is a relic
But my heart's a lunatic n my mind's the medic if I gave a girl my heart shed probably sell it But who am I to judge, I'll give her the credit for standin out with someone like me, I know I admit it I can be complex for some mess, but Im in this music for something cause Im next, my soul says;
I know that my vocal sucks,
So thats why I'm spitting in the beliefs I trust
I must believe in the rhymes I bust
So in the end you'll recognize that your time is up and the time is kuttz

Ref:

Save up all the days
Just routine malaise
Just like yesterday (I told you what now?)
I told you I would stay
(I told you I would stay now... I told you I would stay now)

Verse 2:

Eyelids closed n shut, Don't interrupt
I'm on my Bruce Wayne, jumpin' out of roofs mayn
So you tell me whats up
I got that fire in my gut, Mom, dad, sis,
You know what I do to be in this Buissness
So I continiue to mingle, yeah, Im single Dont give a fuck, keep my middle finger up Just to mix it up, I'm about riddle up Put it on my Denny Kuttz and flourish up

Question is, can you handle my cut?
In many different ways I accelerate Benefit outta my words, delicate, no matter what I say I be headin your way, the story makes the fame and I'd be a sucker if my words didnt fit the frame Cause I am here to stay, Between you and myself Im also here to fornicate my wealth and I hope im doing well
Make a wish, antoher merchandise to sell Cause Im in this for life and I got so many stories left to tell

Ref:

Save up all the days
Just routine malaise
Just like yesterday (I told you what now?)
I told you I would stay
(I told you I would stay now... I told you I would stay
now)

Miniverse/Stick:

To be walking without a burden Im certain of,
where my destination stops, pullin up, Sharpenin' my stuff
Red is the color of the carpet, road to the Oscars, but without a penny in my pockets I'm still showin' Love (x2)

Ref:

Save up all the days

Just like yesterday
I told you I would stay

Save up all the days
Just routine malaise
Just like yesterday (I told you what now?)
I told you I would stay
(I told you I would stay now... I told you I would stay
now)
