Is there a black and a white, oh yeah
Just like the wrong and the right
There can't ever be Any in between
Behind the mask there's a face, oh my Covered by His grace
One is filled with lies the other is a very real, real thing
And it took my whole life for me to finally see That God doesn't care who it is that I claim I'll ever be ( 'cause ) who I am is inside, every choice that I make
Who are you, who are you today?

Can you act the scat?
Come on, tell me can you do that?
When the music starts to play
Can your melody swing?
Or are you always singin' flat?
Come on tell me, tell me cat
Tell can you act the scat?

By a yes, by a no, and how
By which way you go
There's no telling of what
What everyone may see
But Jesus is true, no doubt
He wants the same for you
So let those lyin' chains
Let them be set free
Don't let it take your whole life for you to finally see
That God doesn't care who it is that you claim you'll ever be ( 'Cause ) who you are is inside every choice that you make
Who are you, who are you today?

Can you act the scat?
Come on, tell me can you do that?
When the music starts to play
Can your melody swing?
Or are you always singin' flat?

Come on tell me, tell me cat
Tell can you act the scat?

ummm, ummm, ummm--umm a nama nama nama zee dow
saba daba donoo dee dee doo doo dee doo doo doo dee dee doo saba dap dap dooby do wow.....

Come on boys, tell me Cats can you act the scat?

Don't let it take your whole life for you to finally see
That God doesn't care who it is that you claim you'll
ever be
make
Who are you, who are you today?

Can you act the scat?
Come on, tell me can you do that?
When the music starts to play
Can your melody swing?
Or are you always singin' flat?
Come on tell me, tell me cat
Wow, man, this song is fat!
Tell can you act the scat?
