I am on the brink of losing everything
Hanging on the edge of
Every word she says
And you were never there
You were never there

She stabs deep into me
Am I too blind to see
What this has done to me
She stabs deep into me
Am I too dumb to feel this anymore

You were the one who could save me
You were the one who abandoned me
I am patiently waiting here to see
Which of us survives
When all of this collides with reality

She stabs deep into me
Am I too blind to see
What this has done to me
She stabs deep into me
Am I too dumb to feel this anymore

You were never there. (repeat 4x)

She stabs deep into me
Am I too blind to see
What this has done to me
She stabs deep into me
Am I too dumb to feel this anymore
