I found these plastic parts and wires
Let's split me open at the seams
And rip out everything inside
Make room for all these new machines
Sew me up, pray that i survive
A brand new me
Piece by piece

Stay here and watch me bleed
It's a brand new me, piece by piece

I'll leave a black tear in the sky
To help remember what you've seen
And I'll set this place on fire
Just break and burn down everything
I'm made of plastic parts and wires now
I wont feel anything

Stay here and watch me bleed
It's a brand new me, piece by piece

My flesh, my bones, my blood
They hold my hate, my love
They hold my hate, my pain...
Just take a breath and walk away

Stay here and watch me bleed
It's a brand new me, piece by piece...
