I wish I could see your face
It would be a picture
I feel nothing now
I feel nothing

And eyes light up
At the thought of someone
Giving you what I should have

Oh the thought of being lonely (+4)
She looks nothing like you do

If only you could see her now
She'd be a picture
Hanging on the wall
Of some new exhibition
Life falls to dark
And you think that someone is taking your place
Oh they're taking it

Oh the thought of being lonely (+4)
She looks nothing like you do

She looks nothing like you do
But she paints, she paints her face to suit (+8)

She looks. (+4)
