I wake up in the morning
So far away from home
Tryin' to make it through the day
Many miles are between us
I'm sending my love
From this pay phone

Through the storms we wandered
Many mountains we have climbed
But all the bad times are behind
The road is free, I'm coming home
Woo ooo ooo ooo ooo ooo

Without you I am like
A ship without it's sails
Calling the wind to save me
I'd climb the highest mountain
I'd cross the seven seas
Just to see your smile again

All the trust that we built along the years
Is coming back to stay, I know
Just look ahead the road is free
I'm coming home
Woo ooo ooo ooo
I'm coming home

With every step I'm closer to home
When I'm back you won't be alone
Soon I'll see the familiar door before my eyes
And you, ooo

Oh, through the storms we've wandered
Many mountains we have climbed
All the bad times are behind
The road is, the road is free
I'm coming home
I'm coming home

Through the storms we've wandered
Many mountains we have climbed
The road is free

And I'm, I'm coming home
Through the storms we've wandered
To look ahead, the road is free, yea, yea
