I'm sitting by the calm lake
And watch the setting sun
My feet are in the water
The journey's just begun

In the mist there is a boat
And it's heading towards me
On the deck the lady's holding
Her hand and I agree

I'm falling into fantasy
The dream goes on

We are traveling in the nightfall
Until we stop somewhere
Descending into water
On dark and hazy stairs

Now she's leading me
To the golden palace that lays ahead
She tells me I'm the one
In her dreams and on her bed

I'm falling into fantasy
The dream goes on
I'm falling into fantasy
[Incomprehensible]

I'm falling into fantasy
The dream goes on
I'm falling into fantasy
I'm falling, I'm falling into fantasy

[Incomprehensible]
Oh, I'm falling into fantasy
