"Hills have eyes"

Come with me my child, It's gonna take a little while to teach you the knowledge of the ancient rhyme.

Fly with me tonight,
Through the cosmic sea
It's a mystery.

From the thirst for life
you will never keep away.
Pleasure of one man makes another man a prey.

Fly with me tonight.
Through the cosmic sea,
It's a mystery.

The hills have eyes,
Mind your step,
you'll better be wise
or you never rise again.

The hills have eyes

Never forgive nor compromise you fail in vain.
