I'm walking the street and I hear what you say
Advising me, daring me how to play
I know your name, it's called Mr. Mean
One thing I've learned, you don't know beans

High I fly, I touch the sky
Far above the frozen hearts
You can't kill my dreams
You can't kill my spirit
I was born to be free, yeah

I walk to my own song
Every day the power grows stronger in me
And I walk to my own song
Head up proud, I'm the master of my own destiny

You think you know what is better for me
Holding me lectures of how I should be
Shrugging my shoulders I leave you behind
Anyway I look at it you are blind

High I fly, I touch the sky
Far above the frozen hearts
You can't kill my dreams
You can't kill my spirit
I was born to be free, yeah

And I walk to my own song
Every day the power grows stronger in me
And I walk to my own song
Head up proud, I'm the master of my own destiny

And I walk to my own song
Every day the power grows stronger in me
And I walk to my own song
Head up proud, I'm the master of my own destiny

And I walk to my own song
Every day the power grows stronger in me
And I walk to my own song
Head up proud, I'm the master of my own destiny
