"Black Butter"

Take a mirror from any room,
Hold it up until you see another person,
Standing, when you see him.
Try to talk to him, he will not answer.
Just cry the word, then just cry the whole world,
Oh, yes!

But you don't know where,
No you don't know where, no
Thrust it up, then down again,
SMASH IT! Oh, do it again.
Break it! Oh yeah,
Then destroy it, oh yes, destroy it,
Destroy it, destroy it.
Ho-ha, yes, destroy it!

And if it dies, you'll hear the cries,
And know the meaning of...black butter.
