On a rainy day, let the children play
All the games inside, come and take a ride
Well be on our way, I wont have to say
Find a place to hide, on the countryside
Where the soft skies, no lies,
Blue eyes, what lies?
Now I'll have to tell you
I think, I think maybe I love you
When the sun is down, we can run around
On a moonlit night, it's so out of sight
Far away from town, on a golden crown
That reflects the light, nature was so right
For making soft skies, no lies
Blue eyes, what lies?
Now I'll have to tell you
I think, I think maybe I love you
Step on golden sand, hear the magic band
As we stroll along, we can do no wrong
Come and take my hand, you will understand
As we walk along, while I sing this song
And I'll try to make you believe what I'm doing is right

As we wait for the morning, to take over the night
Step on golden sand, hear the magic band
As we stroll along, we can do no wrong
Come and take my hand, you will understand
As we walk along, while I sing this song
And I'll try to make you believe what I'm doing is right
As we wait for the morning, to take over the night
Because of soft skies, no lies
Blue eyes, what lies?
Now I want to tell you
Now I know
Yes I'm sure that I love you
Yes I'm sure that I love you!
