I - Sweet Dreams
Cousins

Go to sleep, my babies, don't you wake up
The stars will keep you company, so close your eyes
Old uncle moon will smile his dearest sweetest dreams
And hold you in his arms until the morning comes.

II - Night Light
Cousins

Dark the night, not a sound Damp and cold, frosty ground Above your head the lion screams
To tear you from your moonlit dreams.

Damp with sweat, mouth is dry Twisted branches catch the eye
Beside your bed the angel stands
You cannot touch his withered hands.

III - Guardian Angel
Cousins

As the lion's eyes dance before me, they are kindly yet bloody red
I can see that he is smiling but I cannot live inside his head.

Tell me, children, are you sleeping ? Are you innocent like me ?
May you never cross the line ? I hope your dreams are not like mine.

There the needle stands before me, I climb inside it towards the light
Where the angel stands in glory, his sword of peace defends the night.

Tell me children, are you sleeping ? Are you innocent
like me ?

May you never cross the line ? I hope your dreams are not like mine.

So the world is spread before me as I fly high on angel wings
But the angel is deceiving for he is weeping as he sings.

Tell me children, are you sleeping ? Are you innocent
like me ?
not like mine.

Cousins

Early birds, morning breeze Spinning leaves, sleepy trees Gently tap the window pane
It's good to see the sun again.
