"Broken Promises"

I made a promise you made the same the one who breaks it is the one to blame
No more pride no more games with my heart
No more questions of times bad memories in the dark
This is me I'm the one that you know I'm not a stranger who lets fear take control

Ask me now and I'll tell you, Ask me now I won't lie
Would it be the same ,Would it feel the same
Or would we ever have the time
Time goes by, I made a promise to you
Time goes by, You made a promise to me

breaks it is the one with shame
No more lies it only breaks us away no more feelings of doubt from the words that we say

Ask me now and I'll tell you, Ask me now I won't lie
Would it be the same, Would it feel the same
Or would we ever have the time

Time goes by, I made a promise to you
Time goes by, You made a promise to me

Time goes by, You made a promise to me
Time goes by, You made a promise to me
