Yesterday I didn't know
That my feelings were so strong for you
And now it seems so far, my time with you

Help me God, I think of her
Everytime and everywhere
Of everything that we have shared, memories are left

Seeing the lights in the night
Seeing the stars in the sky
I can see your eyes

The moon will make you crazy
Rain is coming down on me
Baby when you left me, left me

Yesterday I didn't know,
I was wasting all my cash on you
And now I'm all alone, just for you

You got me now, just faking thrills
You took it all and then some more
If I can feel, what you could feel,
I think I took your pills

Seeing the lights in the night
Seeing the stars in the sky
I can see your eyes

The moon will make you crazy
Rain is coming down on me

The moon will make you crazy
Rain is coming down on me

The moon will make you crazy
Rain is coming down on me

Baby when you left me,
When you fucking left me!
