Well, I got nine lives, baby, I just keep on comin' back I got nine lives, baby, I just keep on comin' back, oh yeah

I got nine lives and nearly lost them all
But each and every time I really had a ball
I got nine lives, baby, I just keep on comin' back

First time that it happened, well, how was I to know?
She loved me then she left me, it was a long long time ago Numbers eight and seven, well, they flew by like the wind
Don't hang around for me, baby, I'm comin' back again

I got nine lives, baby, I just keep on comin' back
I got nine lives, baby, I just keep on comin' back

I got nine lives and nearly lost them all
But each and every time I really had a ball
I got nine lives, baby, I just keep on comin' back

I had fun on number six but, baby, I got stuck on five She took all of my money, honey, and she buried me alive
Four and three got better, wait and watch out for number two
That one almost killed me, don't you think it can't happen to you?

I got just one life left, I'm gonna live it all on my own Just one last chance, baby, I gotta drive this last one home
No more whiskey, no more wine, no more women this time

Here goes a kitten, I'm smitten
I'm a fool again, [Incomprehensible]
