Replacing old dreams of flattery from you as a hurricane
So go into this evacuation from this
You never meant to, you never meant to.
Call me. Call me. Answer.

Do you think that this could work out?
Do you think you could come around?
Do you think that this could work out again?
I don't.
I don't want to be forgotten,
While you're putting all your time in,
Into the things that don't mean anything to me.

It's too bad and it's even sadder losing everything that I thought this was a lost cause.
It was and I never knew it, I never knew it.
Try 'em on and let 'em go, it might be best to just forget,
You walk away and know you're better off too
You're better off too
Call me. Call me. Answer.

Do you think that this could work out?
Do you think you could come around?
Do you think that this could work out again?
I don't.
I don't want to be forgotten,
While you're putting all your time in,
Into the things that don't mean anything to me.

Wasting faster than the hourglass
it's low, but I'm not ready
I'm not ok to make this harder than it already had to be.
Call me. Call me. Answer.

Do you think that this could work out?
Do you think you could come around?
Do you think that this could work out again?
I don't.
I don't want to be forgotten,

While you're putting all your time in,
Into the things that don't mean anything to me.

Do you think that this could work out?
Do you think you could come around?
Do you think that this could work out again?
I don't.
