Meanwhile, back in Paris
I was embarassed, babe
I whispered and I took away, yeah
It was way past midnight
They caught the last flight to you
And all the strangers
I really don't know what to say

I'm afraid now,
I'm going to phone the base now
Yeah maybe the master really gonna pay, yeah
Says all my ladies, they must be crazy
I turn the light down
But I really, but I really goona pay, yeah, yeah

Forever, forever,
And ever and ever and a day, yeah
Forever, forever,
And ever and ever and a day, oooh-hoo

Oh yeah I'm gonna find him
And I'm gonna remind him
He may be the bloody master
But not first to fight, fight fight
He lied to the agent
He lied when he got his paycheck
Oh, when I find him, you're really gonna go

Action, action, read all about it
Yeah, action, this fighter, read all about it
If you can read, look at this
Action, action, read all about it
Action, this fighter, read all about it
Action, action, read all about it
Front page news
Action, this fighter, read all about it
Action, action, read all about it
Action, action, read all about it
