

Street Dogs

"Hands Down"

Visit "Hands Down" on MotoLyrics.com

All about control, that's the plan
Hitting her makes you feel like a man
It's a sick and twisted brutal game
Won't stay silent to this abusive shame
Can't justify raising those hands
Don't raise your hands

And you say she had it coming
She's out of control
But there is no excuse for this
No way to quantify the toll

It's not right to hit her to instill fear
Or keep her down, hands down
Got to talk it out peacefully, kill that siren sound
?Cause this is it

All night shouting, rips through quiet
Sense escalation, inevitable fight
Next you hear pleas for pity
Then you eye that phone intently
Make that 911 call to the city

And you say she had it coming
She's out of control
But there is no excuse for this
No way to quantify the toll

It's not right to hit her to instill fear
Or keep her down, hands down
Got to talk it out peacefully, kill that siren sound
?Cause this is it, hands down

It's not right to hit her to instill fear
Or keep her down, hands down
Got to talk it out peacefully, kill that siren sound
?Cause this is it

And you say she had it coming
She's out of control
But there is no excuse for this
No way to quantify the toll

She needs a say as well
Her voice not a hinderence
Talking with her beats shouting abuse
Step up and be a man
Her fair treatment is the plan
Deescalation is the right choice

And you say she had it coming
She's out of control
But there is no excuse for this
No way to quantify the toll

It's not right to hit her to instill fear
Or keep her down, hands down
Got to talk it out peacefully, kill that siren sound
?Cause this is it, hands down

It's not right to hit her to instill fear
Or keep her down, hands down
Got to talk it out peacefully, kill that siren sound
?Cause this is it

Visit Street Dogs page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.