I heard a little rumour
That was going 'round town.
He was your boyfriend I was your clown.
I was waiting in the wings,
I knew he didn't care, oh yeah.
And when he told you so
I was standing right there.

Is your heart still cold,
Now that he's not there,
Have you had a change of mind?
Wa can call it love, honey I don't care,
Get it up one more time,

One more time,
One more time,
One more time,
Get it up one more time.

Once that I had you,
I found I didn't want you.
You're always around me,
Like a dream that haunts you.
I thought I could score
With the Sally next door, yeah.
But when she slapped my face,
I was back at your door, uh huh.

Is your heart still cold
Now that he's not there,
Have you had a change of mind?
Call it love, honey I don't care,
Get it up one more time.

One more time,
One more time,
One more time,
Get it up one more time.

Yeah...
I know you've been burned,

But I ain't gonna hurt you.
Yeah...
You're better than a look
At a picture in a book, YEAH!

One more time,
One more time,
One more time,
Get it up one more time.

Heard a little rumour
That was going 'round town,
He was your boyfriend I was your clown.
I was waiting in the wings
'Cause I knew he didn't care, yeah.
And when he told you so

Have you had a change of mind?
Call it love, honey I don't care,
Get it up one more time.

One more time,
One more time,
One more time,
Get it up one more time

Get it up one more time
Get it up one more time
Get it up one more time
Get it up one more time
Get it up one more time
Get it up one more time...
